Directors' Welcome

Over the past three years the Sanguine Estate Music Festival (SEMF) has established itself as one of the major classical music festivals in Australia, attracting top Australian and international artists, playing to a sellout audience from around the country. We are thrilled to announce a new Partnership with the City of Greater Bendigo, establishing an additional SEMF weekend based in the fabulous acoustics of the Capital Theatre. Dates are February 6th to 8th 2015.

The weekend will start with a cocktail party including a performance from Australia's leading Cellists, hosted by our Hotel partner, The Schaller Studio. There will be two concerts on the Saturday. Firstly, a recital by the extraordinary young pianist Daniel de Borah, who is making a sensational career both in Australia and London. And secondly, a chamber music evening featuring the cream of SEMF artists: Ian Munro, Paul Dean, Adam Chalabi, Howard Penny, Chris Howlett, and our fabulous international artist, Berlin-based violist William Coleman of the renowned Kuss quartet, at home in the major concert halls and festivals of the world. To round off the weekend, the visionary Bendigo Art Gallery is offering free admission to weekend pass holders on the Sunday.

We look forward to you joining us for this exciting new musical event in wonderful Bendigo!

Howard Penny and Chris Howlett

Artists

Howard Penny

Renowned Australian cellist now back in Melbourne at ANAM after 30 years based in Vienna, with a solo and chamber music career spanning five continents.

William Coleman

Young Berlin-based violist of the internationally renowned Kuss Quartet, with a flourishing solo career. He holds one of Germany's most prestigious teaching Chairs.
